

SYNACT - SYNCHRONISED ACTION DAYS 2009

Please share your activities around Human Rights Day 2009 (ranging from Nov 10 to Dec 31, 2009) with us in order to gain more visibility! SYNACT - SYNCHRONIZED ACTION DAYS are a powerful PR tool and a standing invitation to all activists and organisation in the field of Education for Democratic Citizenship and Human Rights Education in Europe.

Why SYNACT?

With SYNCHRONISED ACTION DAYS we collect and showcase the many different activities in the field of Education for Democratic Citizenship and Human Rights Education. Be it a public event, a workshop, a seminar, a campaign, an arts project, a roundtable, a local, regional or international project – DARE publishes all your initiatives in a brochure and on the DARE website. We disseminate this hopefully impressing collection to stakeholders on the local, regional, national and European level.

How does it work ?

DARE collects all activities in the field of Education for Democratic Citizenship and Human Rights Education in Europe in the period Nov 10 to Dec 31, 2009. Every activity is important! You just have to fill out the short “activity report sheet” below (or for download at: www.dare-network.eu)

What is DARE’s service and your benefit?

Your activities will be collected, published on DAREs website and put in a brochure which will be sent to all relevant stakeholders on national and European level (MEPs, MPs, MEC etc). You are very welcome to use the logo of the Synchronised Action Days (for download at www.dare-network.eu) to we increase the visibility of our joint efforts.

What you have to do to do?

- 1) Fill out the simple “activity report form” displayed below.
- 2) For every additional activity please just copy the table
- 3) Send the form(s) until October 31, 2009 via Email to: Anne Stalfort (stalfort@adb.de).
